ANGELS COMEDIANS.

At The Park Theatre.

Lovers of drama will be pleased to learn that Angel's Comedians will be with us one solid week commencing Sunday, May 10. The opening play will be "In the Heart of the Blue Ridge," a powerful comedy drama in four acts. Besides twelve dramatic pieces four vaudeville turns will be introduced between the acts. Concerning Angel's Comedians the Daily Oklahoman says:

"The Angel's Comedy Company made their first appearance last night in this city in the open house and rendered a successful performance to the satisfaction of a fairly large audience. The bill included a new little drama entitled "In the Heart of the Blue Ridge," and a number of high class specialties between acts. The scene of the drama is laid in Tennessee and involves a clever plot when the climax is well sustained and the third act, leaving the fourth for an appropriate close, necessary qualities for a successful production. The women of the company have many of the best qualities of the stage and never overact. The background of the south affords the background art and never overact."
